This book is easy to read; my grand kids love it and read it over and over again. Steve uses his imagination while heâ€™s in the woods as the battle continues to rage between this hero and the villain Herobrine; Steve the good guy, Herobrine the bad one. The story line is similar to the traditional tale of the Wizard of Oz which is an all time favorite and very popular story. I was rather impressed with the panel in the book which was used as a learning tool for children about not spitting on others â€” very commendable and a valuable lesson for children to learn. The story ends with Steve saving the day as the true hero he is.

The adventures of Steve in this book opens a parallel universe with the Wizard of Oz. They have included scenes which were common from the original story that they based it in. For sure this will be enjoyed by kids, since the characters and images are set on Minecraft. There were also lessons that you can learn from this book. It's just funny also how lines were delivered by the characters. Overall, I do not regret purchasing this book since it's a good read.

The Adventurous situation that Steve and the colleagues have to overcome the situations in the magical land of IZ. Steve had to hold a lot of dialogues together with the buddies in the shortest time possible to Stop the crazy Hebroine at home. The book is entertaining as I read it on a cool weekend.

I like comics, and had wanted to read something entertaining, this story is read quickly because it is quite simple and entertaining , the graphics need a better quality because some scenes looks really blur and its hard to see, but is just that. I liked it anyway.

It is an amazing comic book including a story line based on the traditional tale of the Wizard of Oz. This book shared an important moral lesson in disguise of the story. My beloved son is fond of this type of comic book containing colorful illustration. This comics is originated from a popular game and the flow of this plot is smooth and easy to realize. I recommend this book as it is a great source of joy and fun.

I totally enjoyed reading this book together with my son. He loves this kind of stories and he wants me to read this over and over again. He even memorized some lines. What I loved about this book is that it has moral lesson in it, which is not to spit on anyone. My son loved when Steve was able to defeat Herobine. There is really fun in this book and I would recommend this to all parents. This is a great book for your little ones. Please make more stories like this, author!

I have read the comics very long ago. So I decided to remember my childhood and something of that read. I chose "Minecraft Steve Adventures. The Wizard of IZ". I must say that I liked it. It was easy to read. This is an interesting, funny and quick-witted comics. True, I would like a clear graphics. This is somewhat blurred.
