Customer Reviews

This book is great if you're considering a food truck of some sort. It is extremely detailed in explaining the necessary steps for opening your own business. This will help you think of things you had not considered in your journey such as expenses, materials, marketing, and competition. Good luck!

Answered questions that I did not consider to ask. A very comprehensive business book for first time food truck entrepreneurs.

Good overviews for starting business even has where to go on line for more references
