The magical, evocative follow-up to The Fire Wish.The war: The lies that started the conflict are in the open now, but the war between the humans and the jinn is as bitter as everâ ”and becoming far more treacherous.The sisters: Najwa and Zayeale have just learned theyâ™re half-jinni, half-human twins. Najwa is now the jinni representative at the human palace, working to bring peace. But her new role comes at a priceâ ”sheâ™s no longer allowed alone with her cherished Prince Kamal. And as Zayeale adjusts to life among the jinn, she discovers that sheâ™s a magus, one of the most powerful jinn in the Cavern. Suddenly, sheâ™s thrown into special training, and the strongest young men in the army are competing to be paired up with her.The wish: Once again, Zayeale makes a wish. A wish that she doesnâ™t think can possibly go wrong. A wish that neither sister could imagine would change the outcome of the war.What I Liked:Ah! I just realized that this book is a July 14th release, not July 28th. When did that change?! I'm kind of meticulous when it comes to my review schedule, so this review is totally out of place (it's with the July 28th reviews, not the July 14th reviews, ugh)! Anyway, I guess in the long run, that's a good thing. This book is heading your way even faster!
