Customer Reviews

The CrunchTime series is a lifesaver for law school exams, I highly recommend it as a supplement. When you're sick of playing "hide the ball" and just want the black letter law, this book teaches you what you need to know fast and in several different methods.

Yes meet expectations

Good summary...even if have full version, this has lots of flow charts full version does not have.If you do casebook readings, then skip full version and go with this one.
