Customer Reviews

A pretty straightforward retelling of the first nine chapters of the Book of Genesis from the Old Testament of the Bible. No religiosity is included and the story is presented in the same way as any ancient "myth" would be told. This graphic novel is best read by non-Judeo-Christians who want to know the "stories" of Adam & Eve and Noah. The book then ends with a few pages summarizing other Old Testament stories of interest then another few pages summarizing other ancient cultures' flood "myths". The story-telling is entertaining however, I found the art to be particularly unattractive and downright ugly at times.
